STEVE & LUCY

Sri Lanka is a lush, tropical island paradise known to Arab traders as Serendib – hence ‘serendipity’, meaning discovery by happy accident – and famously described by Marco Polo as “undoubtedly the finest island of its size in the world”. Surrounded by the clear, warm waters of the Indian Ocean and skirted by palm-fringed beaches, the culturally rich and environmentally diverse island state of Sri Lanka has much to offer the visitor.

The island’s superb beaches lie around its magical coastline from Kalpitiya in the north-west, and Negombo and Bentota on the west coast, to Unawatuna, Mirissa and Tangalle along the picturesque southern coastline east of Galle. By contrast, Nilaveli near Trincomalee, Passekudah and Arugam Bay offer clear waters good for snorkelling and surfing, and white sandy beaches on the quieter and less developed east coast.

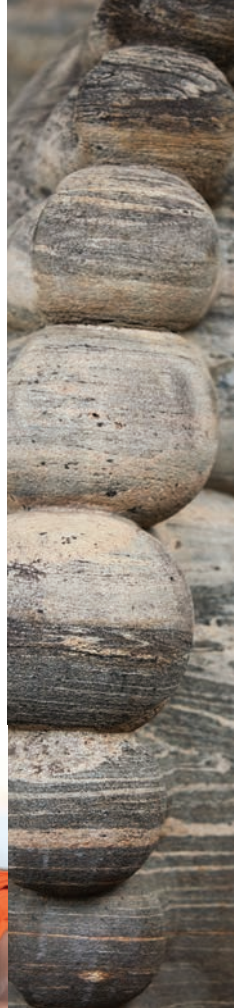

However, many of Sri Lanka’s most beautiful and interesting sights are away from the coast. Kandy and the ancient capitals of Anuradhapura and Polonnaruwa are the principal points of the island’s Cultural Triangle, which also includes the extraordinary royal citadel of Sigiriya (‘Lion Rock’), decorated with its world famous frescoes. Close to Anuradhapura is Mihintale, the cradle of Buddhism in Sri Lanka, while Dambulla has impressive paintings and statues in its cave temples.

The Hill Country, with spectacular waterfalls and attractive walking trails around Nuwara Eliya and Ella, which are surrounded by tea plantations, provide a cool, refreshing break. Many visitors are also attracted by the natural wonders of Horton Plains (and ‘World’s End’) nearby, or the chance to spot endemic bird life in Sinharaja and around Kitulgala, which is also famous for white-water rafting. Adam’s Peak (Sri Pada), which every religious person in Sri Lanka is expected to climb at least once in their lifetime, leaves everyone spellbound as the incredible sunrise produces the famous spectacle known as the ‘Shadow of the Peak’.

The iconic elephant is synonymous with Sri Lanka and wild herds are still roaming freely in various national parks across the country including Minneriya and Wilpattu in the Cultural Triangle, and, in the south of the island, Uda Walawe and Yala, which is also home to a variety of other wildlife including leopards and sloth bears. Close by, Bundala offers plenty of excellent bird watching opportunities along several shallow coastal lagoons.

“A great time; value for money; wonderful memories! If you want testimonials from us we would be delighted.”

Maldives is located on the equator an hour and a half's flight southwest of Sri Lanka and it is made up of 1190 coral islands, forming an archipelago of 26 major atolls. Faru, ring-like coral formations enclosing an azure blue lagoon surrounded by dazzling white talc sand, form the atolls and give Maldives its unique paradise-like appearance – a string of pearls scattered over the deep blue Indian Ocean.

Maldives is famed for its rare underwater beauty, with the bluest of waters teeming with astonishing soft corals and fish sparkling in a profusion of psychedelic colours around the stunning reefs. With incredible underwater visibility, warm ocean temperatures throughout the year, and some of the best dive sites, sun-drenched beaches and spa resorts in the world, Maldives offers you a truly unrivalled tropical island experience.

Tikalanka actively encourages responsible and sustainable travel by only employing Sri Lankan guides, promoting locally owned guesthouses and hotels, and eating at local restaurants. This not only contributes directly to the local economy and provides much needed employment, but also enhances the travellers' experience through personal contact with the island's people.

We are also endeavouring to promote cultural exchange, social awareness, self-employment and self-development through community-led projects, and ensure travellers are aware of their impact on the environment and people of Sri Lanka and Maldives. Tikalanka is recommended by ResponsibleTravel.com, a supporter of 'Know Before You Go' and Travellers' Animal Alert, and we advocate carbon neutral flights.

Tikalanka recognises that increasing traveller numbers to Sri Lanka and Maldives can have a negative impact on the islands' culture and environment, and also that travelling there involves long-haul flights, which contribute to global carbon emissions. It is our duty, therefore, to minimise the negative aspects of long-haul travel and its potentially damaging effect on the culture and ecology of Sri Lanka and Maldives, while enabling the islands' people to gain maximum benefit from the positive impact of increased tourism.

"With the politeness, ethics, honesty and kindness you demonstrated I can genuinely say that it was an absolute pleasure dealing with you."

B O O K I N G C O N D I T I O N S

It is important to us that you are happy with your holiday and that you understand the nature of our holidays. We would, therefore, ask that you take a few minutes to read these Booking Conditions and if you need clarification on any point, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Your financial protection

When you buy an ATOL Protected flight or flight inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong.

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims maybe re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

To make a booking

All bookings are made with Tikalanka Tours (UK) Limited (ATOL 6425) and by confirming a booking you are agreeing to the conditions set out below. To secure a booking, Tikalanka Tours (UK) Limited needs a completed Booking Form and the necessary deposit or full payment for travel within 60 days. Persons booking by fax, e-mail or telephone, will be deemed to have read these Booking Conditions and have signed the booking form. A booking is accepted and a contract is entered into when we issue you with a written confirmation of booking. The contract, including all matters arising from it, is subject to English Law and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts. We reserve the right to decline any booking at our discretion.

Payment for the holiday

If you are booking more than 60 days prior to the date of departure you will need to send 10% of the total cost of the holiday as a deposit. The balance of all monies due must be paid to us not later than 60 days before departure (or immediately if booking less than 60 days prior to departure). If we are booking your flights, payment of your flights may need to be made before the balance due date (60 days prior to departure) in order to confirm your flights with the airline or take advantage of special airfares. If this is the case, you will be informed of the payment schedule on confirmation of your holiday booking. In the event of non-payment of the balance we reserve the right to cancel your booking and cancellation charges will apply. Payment for your holiday can be made by direct bank transfer (best) or personal cheque, or credit card (charges apply).

If you cancel your booking

Should you wish to cancel your booking, the following cancellation charges will be imposed. They are calculated from the day your cancellation is received in writing:

More than 60 days prior to departure - retention of deposit

Between 30 and 59 days prior to departure - 50% of total holiday price

Between 14 and 29 days prior to departure - 90% of total holiday price

Less than 14 days - 100% of total holiday price.

Transferring of bookings

In certain circumstances, which we consider to be reasonable, you may be able to transfer your booking to another suitable person. This can only be permitted if all suppliers (e.g. the airline) agree to accept the transfer. If a transfer is acceptable then we will need to make an administration charge of £50 per person plus any charges levied by suppliers.

If we cancel your holiday

We will not cancel your holiday unless we are forced to do so by circumstances beyond our control such as flight cancellations, war, civil or political unrest or 'force majeure'. If we cancel the holiday, we will offer you an alternative holiday if possible. If this is not possible or not acceptable to you, we will refund all payments made to us in respect of the holiday cost, less any administration charges, but we are not liable for any incidental expenses you may have incurred.

Surcharges

We will absorb fluctuations in exchange rates or increased costs of less than 2%. Surcharges may, however, be imposed up to 6 weeks prior to departure due to rises in excess of 2% in exchange rates, increases in transport or other costs, or if Government action forces us to increase charges. If any surcharge is imposed which exceeds 10% of the holiday cost, you have the right to cancel your booking within 7 days of the notification of the surcharge and we will refund any monies paid to us in respect of the holiday.

Complaints

If you have a complaint about your holiday you must make it known to your National Guide Lecturer or Chauffeur Guide as soon as possible so that he is able to take appropriate action at the earliest opportunity. If you are not satisfied with our response and you feel your enjoyment of the holiday will be significantly affected you should contact our office in Kandy, Sri Lanka or our Head Office in the UK to discuss how we might best resolve the problem. If on return from your holiday you remain unsatisfied you must notify us in writing within 30 days.

Liability

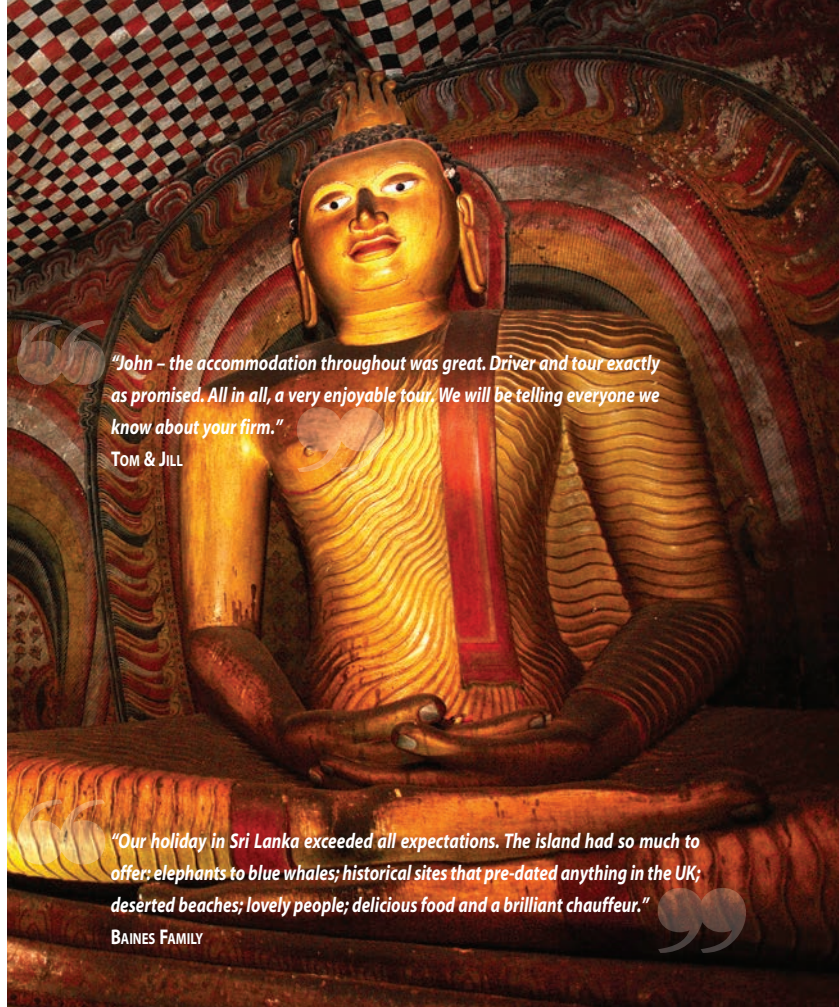

The Company will accept liability for the negligence of its own employees causing direct physical injury to passengers only to the extent that it is obliged to do so under English Law. We cannot be held responsible for any other mishaps to yourself or your property, in particular those arising as a consequence of flight cancellations, strikes, wars, riots, robbery, sickness, quarantine, Government intervention or other such happenings. The Company will not accept liability for damages caused by the total or partial failure to carry out the contract if the failure is attributable to the passenger; or unforeseeable or unavoidable and attributable to a third party unconnected to the Company; or the result of circumstances beyond the Company's control; or the result of an event that the Company even with all due care and attention could not foresee or forestall. Where the Company is found to be liable for damages in respect of its failure to carry out the contract, the maximum amount of such damages will normally be limited to the price paid for the holiday. Where the damages relate to the provision of transport by air, sea or rail, or hotel accommodation, any compensation payable will be further limited by the Warsaw Convention as amended by the Hague Protocol 1955 (air), the Athens Convention 1974 (sea), the Berne Convention 1961 (rail) and the Paris Convention 1962 (hotel accommodation). Any independent arrangements that you make which are not part of the holiday are entirely at your own risk.

Transport

Details such as airline and aircraft type will be confirmed at the time of your booking. Please note that we use scheduled airlines for all flights. Timings of all transport are estimates only. They may be affected by operational difficulties, weather conditions or failure of passengers to check in on time. Please also note that the carriers' conditions of carriage that apply to you have clauses that limit or exclude liability. We do not make any arrangements at the outbound or inbound airports for flight delays (airlines make provision in this case) but we will, however, if this affects your outbound flight, do all we can to make any necessary adjustments to your itinerary to ensure that there is a minimum knock-on effect to your overall holiday.

WARNING

Your booking is accepted on the understanding that you realise the hazards involved in a holiday of this nature, including injury, disease, loss or damage to property, inconvenience or discomfort. It is a condition of travelling with us that you accept any necessary flexibility, local inadequacies or unpredictable events when they occur. You must abide by the authority of the National Guide Lecturer or Chauffeur Guide and your signing of our Booking Form acknowledges this. We reserve the right to terminate your travel with us immediately should you commit an illegal act or your behaviour be judged to be a danger or nuisance to our employees or service providers.

"John – the accommodation throughout was great. Driver and tour exactly as promised. All in all, a very enjoyable tour. We will be telling everyone we know about your firm."

"Our holiday in Sri Lanka exceeded all expectations. The island had so much to offer: elephants to blue whales; historical sites that pre-dated anything in the UK; deserted beaches; lovely people; delicious food and a brilliant chauffeur."
